CAUTION EXTRA

A man by the name of [illegible] has engaged with a young man of the name of [illegible] Townsend and uses his name to put up a [illegible] which they call Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla [illegible] GENUINE. Original, etc. This Townsend [illegible] never was, but was formerly a worker [illegible] nals, and the like. Yet he assumes [illegible] purpose of gaining credit for what [illegible] caution the public not to be deceived, and [illegible] none but the GENUINE ORIGINAL OLD Dr. Jacob Townsend's Sarsaparilla, having on it the Old Dr's likeness, his family coat of arms, and his signature across the coat of arms.

Principal Office 102 Nassau St

OLD DR. JACOB TOWNSEND,

THE ORIGINAL DISCOVERER

Genuine Townsend Sarsaparilla.

Old Dr. Townsend is now about 70 years of age, and has long been known as the AUTHOR AND DISCOVERER of the GENUINE OR ORIGINAL "TOWNSEND SARSAPARILLA." Prior to his retirement to this metropolis, by which means it has been kept out of market, and its sales curtailed to those only who had proved its worth and known its value. It had not had the care of agents, nevertheless, as thousands can witness, had been healed of sore diseases, and saved from death, yet admired its excellence and wonderful

HEALING POWER.

Knowing many years ago that his skill, science and experience derived so far as which would be of incalculable advantage to mankind when the means would be furnished to bring it into universal notice where its inestimable virtues would be known and appreciated. This time has come the means are supplied, and is now offered to the public for sanction and, as called for through the medium of the press. Some of the properties of sarsaparilla are so volatile that they entirely evaporate and are lost in the preparation if they are not preserved by a scientific process known only to those experienced in this manufacture. Moreover, there is a volatile principle which by all analysis of an extract or decoction of sarsaparilla, which is the very essence, medical properties of the root, which gives it its virtue. Any person can try it for themselves, if they get a dark colored liquid which is no more the coloring matter in the root than it is any other liquid, sweet as any sugar in water, and that is all. SARSAPARILLA EXTRACT or SYRUP, but which is not the article known as the

GENUINE OLD DR JACOB TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA

This is no imperial secret, but a compound of the Sarsaparilla root, the first removed every thing capable of becoming acid or of fermentation is extracted and rejected, then every particle of virtue is secured in a pure and concentrated form, and is rendered susceptible of keeping any of its valuable and healing properties. Prepared in this way it stands the most powerful age. Can the

Cure of innumerable diseases.

Here the testimony will be given in abundance on every side, as a proof of the wonderful cures which have been made by the use of this medicine. We subjoin a few wonders in the cure of CONSUMPTION, DYSPEPSIA and LIVER COMPLAINT, DROPSY, RHEUMATISM, SCROFULA, PIMPLES, CONSTIPENESS, CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS, TUMPERS, BLOOD BLEMISHES and all affections arising from

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD

If you see any [illegible] such as the complaints arising from indigestion, [illegible] for the Stomach, from unequal circulation, determination of blood to the head, palpitation of the heart, [illegible] cold chills and flushes, you may expect the best results from its use. Females in Cases and Coughs, and promotes easy expectoration and relief in pulmonary or wasting complaints, throat and every other part.

Let us mention a few testimonies more in detail, recent and unknown of the [illegible] and ages of

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Twenty weeks in cases of Spur Hemorrhoids or Whites, Pining of the Bowels Obstructed & Suppressed, Painfully Many & Irregular, Leucorrhea, Nervous and Hysterical Complaints, Dyspepsia Costiveness, Pain in the Side and Back, Nervous Diseases.

By removing obstructions and invigorating the general system, it gives tone and strength to the whole body, and thus cures all [illegible]

Nervous diseases and debility, and thus prevents [illegible] other maladies as Spinal Irritation, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Nervous Headache, Hysteria, Fits, Convulsions &c

It clears the blood, excites the liver to healthy action, tones the stomach, and gives good digestion, relieves the bowels of costiveness and constipation, allays inflammation, justifies the skin, equalizes the circulation of the blood, producing gentle warmth equally all over the body, and the insensible perspiration relaxes all stiffness and tightness, removes all obstructions and impurities in the nervous system, so that this

The medicine you pre-eminently needs

[illegible] Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla [illegible] COMPARED WITH THE OLD DRS [illegible] SARSAPARILLA [illegible]

while the other DOES souring, fermenting, and blowing the bottles containing into fragments, the sour acid liquid exploding and damaging other goods. Must not this horrid compound be poisonous to the system?—What! put acid into a system already diseased with acid. What reason Hygeian but would! Have multitudes know that when food sours in our stomachs what mischiefs it produces? dizziness, heartburn, palpitation of the heart, liver complaint & others, dysentery, colic, and corruption of the blood? What is Scrofula but an acid humor in the body? What produces all the humors which bring on eruptions of the Skin, called Head, Salt Rheum, Pimples, White Swellings, Fever Sores, and a thousand other internal and external? It is multitudes under heaven but an acid substance which sours and then spoils all the fluids of the body, more or less. What causes Rheumatism but a sour or acid fluid which insinuates itself between the joints and relaxes them, limbs and lodging the delicate fluids upon which it acts? Sour [illegible] diseases of impurity of the blood, of deranged circulations and nearly all the ailments which affect human nature.

Now is not horrible to make and sell, and infinitely worse to use a SOURING, FERMENTING, ACID "COMPOUND" OF S. P. TOWNSEND, as if it he would fain have it understood that Old Dr. Jacob Townsend is a Sour or Original Sarsaparilla is no libel AGAINST of his inferior preparation?

Heaven forbid that we should do him an article which would bear the most distant resemblance to S. P. Townsend's acrid and which should bring down upon the Old Dr such a mountain load of complaints and criminations from Agents who have sold and purchasers who have used S. P. Townsend's FERMENTING COMPOUND.

We wish it understood because it is the absolute truth, that S. P. Townsend's article and Old Dr Jacob Townsend's Sarsaparilla are between wide apart and infinitely dissimilar, that they are not alike in every particular having not one single thing in common.

S. P. Townsend is and ever was, is no chemist, no pharmacist—knows no more of medicine or disease than any other common unscientific unprofessional man, what guarantee can the public have that they are receiving a genuine scientific medicine, containing all the virtues of the articles used in preparing it, and which are incapable of changes which might render them the AGENTS of Disease instead of health.

But what else should be expected from one who knowing nothing comparatively of medicine or disease? It requires a person of some experience to cook and serve up even a common dinner, much more important is it that the persons who prepare medicine, designed for should know well the medicinal properties of plants, be most manner of securing and concentrating their healing virtues, also an extensive knowledge of the various diseases which affect the human system and how to adapt remedies to these diseases.

It is to arrest frauds upon the unfortunate, to prevent balm into wounded humanity to heal, and to be a sparing balsam to restore health and vigor to the crushed and broken down, the feeble, the dismay that OLD DR. JACOB TOWNSEND has [illegible] and FOUND the opportunity and means [illegible] within the reach and to the [illegible] who need it, that they may learn and [illegible] experience.

Transcendent Power to Heal.

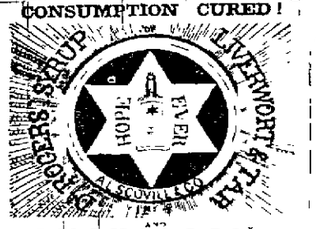
CONSUMPTION CURED!



AND

FOR THE COMPLETE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, spitting of Blood, and all other Lung Complaints tending to CONSUMPTION.

READ! READ!!

This medicine is just what it is declared to be above. A remedy for the complete cure of all those affections of the Throat and Lungs which, if neglected, always end in CONSUMPTION. It is not a worthless, catch penny article, made just to sell, like many of the common nostrums of the day, but it is a strictly scientific Preparation—the original recipe having been furnished by an eminent Physician, (the late Prof. Rogers,) and that still further improved by one of the present proprietors, who is himself a regularly educated Physician, graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. It is composed of the choicest articles in the vegetable kingdom, most of them of long-tried value and established reputation, and some of them entirely new particularly the CANCHALAGUA, a plant of most wonderful medicinal virtues, lately introduced into this country from California. The Recipe has been shown to thousands of Physicians, who have universally approved of it, and will be shown to any Physician who desires to see it, upon application either to the Proprietors or their Agents. It has been used in multitudes of cases, and is strongly recommended by Physicians, even Professors in our Medical Colleges, Ministers of the Gospel, Judges, Lawyers, Merchants, Mechanics &c., as a wonderful proof that there is no quackery or deception about it, but that it is a medicine of most uncommon virtue and efficacy.

PAMPHLETS.

As no ordinary sized advertisement can begin to do justice to the merits of this article, the Proprietors have embodied in a pamphlet form, the history of this Medicine—the description, nature, &c., of its principal ingredients—the effect they are designed to have upon the human system—and above all, the incalculable amount of good which it has done. They design to circulate this pamphlet extensively; but should any one be overlooked, they are earnestly desired to call upon the Agents named below, and procure one, gratis. The nuts on page 7th may be worth to yourself or family TEN THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS, and it will introduce you to a mass of testimony in its favor, which is perfectly irresistible.

Such being our confidence in its virtues, we are willing to warrant the Medicine in every recent case, (if used according to the directions) and where the person is not satisfied that he is not deriving benefit from it, by returning the bottle within 24 hour's time, will be refunded. ☞ See page 3d of the Pamphlet.

WARRANTED NOT TO INJURE BOOKS OR PAPERS BY DAMPNESS.

THESE are the only Safes WILDER'S PATENT, that have in every instance preserved their contents when exposed to large fires, like the burning of the Tribune printing office in New York city, and many others, too numerous to mention.

The above Safes are manufactured and for sale by JOHN E. WILDER, Boston, and for sale in Bangor, at the manufacturers prices, by FISKE & DALE.

☞ The Following Letter from the Superintendent of the Maine Telegraph Company, is another proof of the superiority of JOHN E WILDER'S Safe over all others.—

BANGOR, Oct. 21, 1849.

John E Wilder, Esq—

Dear Sir—The Safe I purchased of you was exposed to a great degree of heat at the burning of the Telegraph Office, in this city. It was in the fire six hours, the books and papers were uninjured, and the damage to the Safe very slight, although it fell from the second story to the basement of the building. The little repairs necessary to the Safe have been made, and we shall not need to return it. It is still as good as new.

Respectfully yours, JAS EDDY

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With U. S. Patent Office

WASHINGTON

NO. 22 STATE STREET, BOSTON.

IN 1840 the subscriber was appointed by the Commissioner of Patents, Agent of the U. S Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th Sec. of Act of '37.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models, and adopted a more expeditious mode of sending them to the Patent Office, whereby a Patent may be procured about six weeks earlier, he continues to forward them free of expense—to prepare Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents; and to render advice on legal and scientific matters respecting the same. Patents secured in Europe and other countries.

By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of verbally explaining their inventions, and of consulting in respect to them; matters, in general, of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims. The experience of sixteen year's practice, an extensive collection of rare works, decisions, &c. on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford to inventors, destitute of procuring Patents, assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult of attainment.

R. H. EDDY Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN Planing, Tongueing, and Grooving Lumber.

JOSEPH P. WOODBURY'S Patent Planing Machine.

THE subscriber having received Letters Patent for a stationary Cutter, Planing, Tongueing and Grooving Machine, now offers for sale Machines and Rights to use the same. This machine will plane 6,000 feet of boards or any lumber in one hour, thus producing a better finished surface than it is possible to plane by any other means now known, not excepting the hand plane, and is peculiarly adapted to plane and joint clapboards, or weather boarding, and will do the work faster and better than any machine heretofore invented. This machine is so arranged that it places the board with an unbroken shaving the whole width and length of the board, and does not take more than two thirds the power that is required to do a newspaper amount of work by the Rotary Cutting Cylinder, now in common use. The construction and organization of this machine is different from any other now in use. Communications for further particulars cheerfully responded to by addressing the subscriber (post paid,) Boston, Mass.

CALIFORNIA.

The recent report of Mr. King upon the resources of California, the late arrival of several steamers from the Isthmus, with large amounts of California gold, and the extensive preparations now being made along the whole frontier of the Western States, for a large overland emigration, across the Rocky Mountains, as soon as the season will admit, naturally calls the attention of the American people to these subjects, and the inquiry is made, what is to be the end of all this?

It is quite certain, that a large amount of gold will be dug in California for many years to come, that the steamers engaged in the business of transportation will, the most of them, make enormous profits; that speculators in real estate, hotel keepers, gamblers, usurers, and some others will be fortunate in accumulating great wealth. Among the money diggers, however, the results will be more varied. Many will die from exposure, bad diet and the diseases of the climate; many will fail to realize more than enough to defray expenses;—while some more fortunate, may find gold enough to make themselves rich, considering the position they occupy.

But what, after all, is to be the general result? The number of emigrants now in California is supposed to be about one hundred thousand, each maintained at the cost of about one thousand dollars, yearly; especially if we take into account the cost of going or returning. This will amount to the sum of one hundred millions of dollars. The whole amount of gold, estimated to be dug for the ensuing year, does not exceed fifty millions. Here then will be an immense loss, without taking into account the loss of productive labor, if the emigrant had remained at home. It is quite evident, that for a long time to come, it will cost at least two dollars to dig one.

Here again, what is to be the effect of this money wealth upon the United States, if continued through a series of years, in increased quantities? Spain stands before us, a living example of the ill effects of the sudden influx of this kind of wealth, and she may well date the commencement of her downfall, from the first arrival of the silver and gold freighted galleons from Mexico and Peru.

The solid wealth of a nation consists in its cultivated lands, its houses, stores, ships, manufactories, rail roads and canals, and more than all, in an industrious, sober-minded and virtuous population. Money wealth, although valuable to a nation in many respects, looses much of its usefulness, when suddenly accumulated in large masses. It tends to extravagance in living, stimulates excessive importations from foreign countries, deadens home industry, and debases the population.

"Ill fares the land to hastening ills a prey,
Where wealth accumulates, and men decay."

The effects of the California excitement, thus far, has been injuriously felt in many parts of the United States, causing many persons well situated, to be discontented with their present condition, desirous of selling out and going to the gold mines, and becoming suddenly rich. Some of the small villages in the Western States, it is said, have been nearly depopulated.

Nearly all who go, or wish to go to California, intend to return. But few think of spending their days there, and in fact almost every returning steamer is full of passengers on their way home. Can churches, schools or benevolent institutions flourish in California under such circumstances? where nobody is at home, and where the intense excitement of the gambling spirit attendant upon the desire and effort of becoming suddenly rich, demoralizes the mind, and quickens into life all the animal faculties.

Every day's experience tends to confirm the sagacious remarks of Senator Benton, that the discovery of gold in California would prove a curse to the United States, and that the sooner it was dug up and carried off, the better it would be.

California will undoubtedly be soon a populous and a rich place. How can it be otherwise, when the whole commercial world are busy in carrying thither, merchandise of all descriptions, and providing for the wants of a population five times larger than actually exists. Fortunes will be made and lost in the sudden rise and fall of property, under these extraordinary circumstances.

We even know that a large portion of our population are always restless, with a strong desire to emigrate and better their condition; and how much better would it be, if all such persons, instead of going to California, would go to Iowa, Wisconsin, or Minnesota, where there is a good climate, and abundance of fertile and cheap land, where schools, churches, and all the comforts of social life are fast springing up; where a reasonable competency can be easily secured, and where well directed labor will add so much to the solid wealth of the country.

THE POST OFFICE AT SAN FRANCISCO.—A San Francisco correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser writes as follows:

"The Oregon brought a very large mail, and the anxiety to get news from home was intense. The post office has been thronged ever since the arrival of the steamer, and it will give you an idea of the rush when I tell you, that on Sunday it took four hours to go through the mill. Five thousand letters were dispatched to the Sacramento and Stockton post offices.—Those who have boxes in the post office obtain their letters with comparative ease; and, by the way, these boxes must be a source of great revenue. The rent at $2 per month for each occupant, and were times six or eight persons hold one box. There are about 1000 boxes, and the rents are estimated at $35,000 per annum.

The grand jury of Barnstable county have been unable to find a bill of indictment against the brother Learned, charged with the robbery at Provincetown, and they have accordingly been discharged.

It is proposed that the Stark monument to be built in New Hampshire, shall be of granite, and 160 feet high—its cost not far from $40,000. The location is to be determined hereafter.

EXTRACT.

From a letter received from a member of the Bangor Trading and Mining Company, on Board the Bark Cantero.

VALPARAISO, Feb. 25th, 1850.

"We arrived here on the 23d inst., after a passage of fifty days from St. Catherines, and 102 days from Bangor. Have had very little sickness on board, and at this time, are all in good health. We were off Cape Horn about 2 weeks, and went as far as 60 deg. south lat. The thermometer was down to about 40 degs., which made the weather quite uncomfortable. We have had considerable heavy weather, but such was the confidence in the bark and in the ability of the Captain and crew, that no apprehension of trouble has been manifested, even in the most severe storms. All on board have seemed to enjoy themselves well, and there has not been the least discord among the company or passengers. Various exercises and amusements constantly kept up, have conduced to our health, and made the passage seem short. This city contains about 26,000 inhabitants.—The natives appear cheerful and happy—they work on the Sabbath as on other days. The coast is very mountainous, and apparently barren; but the interior is level and fruitful.—Flour, of the first quality, $6 per 200 lbs.;—potatoes, 60 cts.; molasses, 50 cts.; beans, as cheap as in Bangor. We have purchased about $900 worth of provisions, and still have funds left. Shall take 10 passengers at $65 each, to carry to San Francisco. There will be but few letters sent from here, as it costs 75 cents to send from here to Panama. T.

Maungwudaus, the Chippewa Chief.

This celebrated Indian chief arrived at Washington, D. C. on Saturday last, and took rooms at the National Hotel. Upon his entry into the hotel he was introduced to the Hon. Henry Clay, who received him with great cordiality, and they mutually expressed their gratification in the meeting. Mr. Clay conducted him into the ladies parlor, where he introduced him to some 50 or 60 ladies, officers and other gentlemen.

Mr. Clay said he could not help envying the chieftain, his splendid form, broad chest, manly strength and height of stature.

"I have to look up to you," said Mr. Clay, "you are the stronger man. Our strength is in our numbers, I hope: but our strength is your strength also. He inquired if Maungwudaus was married; and, in reply, the chief stated that his wife died in England; and spent some years with his family in Europe; had become acquainted with some members of the royal family in England; also with the Bey of Tunis, Louis Philippe and others; and he showed an elegant gold medallion presented to him by Louis Philippe.

Mr. Clay humorously remarked that, as the chief was a widower; he was entitled to have the youngest and prettiest lady in the room for a wife. This made a great laugh.

Mr. Clay requested him to dance before the ladies, but he excused himself on account of the absence of his drum and war club; otherwise, he would have been glad to please the ladies. The senator then replied, that the ladies must dance themselves, so as to charm the chief; and they did at once, and the chieftain thanked them for the pleasure they had afforded him.

On Sunday morning Mr. Calhoun died. He had been acquainted with Maungwudaus; and in looking upon the calm, placic, and beautiful corpse of the departed great man, the chief was much affected.

On Tuesday, Maungwudaus went to see the President by appointment, and there delivered the following speech, in substance, having presented a pair of large snow shoes, such as are used by his tribe:

VENERABLE FATHER: Having travelled over many countries beyond the sea, and having been welcomed to the hearth-stones of many of the chiefs or sovereigns of Europe, I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude to the Great Spirit for his goodness in conducting me again to the home of my fathers; and I desire, before returning to the bosom of my kindred, to grasp in friendship the hand of the great father of this people.

To this the President replied, that he was very happy to extend the hand of friendship to the representative of the Chippewa nation, and expressed a warm personal interest in their welfare. He concluded by presenting to the chief a large and elegant silver medallion as a token of respect and regard.

The Franklin Expedition.

The little squadron now fitting out at this port, at the expense and under the supervision of Henry Grinnell, Esq., we are happy to be assured, will be underweigh in the course of a few weeks. It goes on a mission every friend of humanity here and in England will anxiously look for and to see accomplished. It reflects an honor upon the American name every citizen may honestly be proud of, and one, withal, that we would rather have than the winning of a victory upon a field of battle. The merchants of New York, in this matter, have won for themselves a name and a fame that can never perish so long as enlightened and philanthropic enterprize is honored and respected. Having purchased and fitted out this squadron as efficiently as it is in his power to do, individually, what Mr. Grinnell now wants is, that Congress should grant him thirty seamen belonging to the United States Navy; men subject to the discipline of the Government service, whose efficiency and obedience on such an expedition would be good guarantees of success, which could not be expected if the squadron is suffered to go on its perilous voyage with men enlisted for the merchants service, in the ordinary way. The utility and reasonableness of this request are such that we do not see how Congress can deny it. We are happy to see that Mr. Clay offered the petition of Mr. Grinnell in the U. S. Senate yesterday, introducing it in such a way as leaves no manner of doubt in our mind that it will go forwith be favorably acted upon. It affords us much pleasure to say that that petition has been backed up by another, to which is attached the names of many of our most respectable and influential New York merchants, a copy of which is given below. We trust gentlemen at Washington will act upon the matter with promptness. This is the most favorable season for the departure of the Expedition, and therefore there is not much time to be lost.—N. Y. Express.

LIBERAL AND PRAISEWORTHY BEQUEST.—B. H. Punchard, Esq., of Andover, whose death we chronicled a few days since, has in his will, as we learn from Mr. Foster, of the Express, given sixty thousand dollars for the establishment and support of a high school in that town. It is to be managed by a board of trustees of different denominations, and will afford peculiar advantages to the boys and girls of the place. Among the most excellent provisions in the will, respecting the school, are these, that the Bible is to be read daily, and the Lord's Prayer repeated every morning. Surely "the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance." Mr. P. has long been a generous benefactor of the Episcopal Church in A., has remembered the poor, practically, and in addition to the noble act recorded above, has provided for friends for whom he had long cherished affection and regard, and for objects in which he has taken a deep interest.

FIRE IN LINCOLNVILLE. On Saturday night last, at Peaches beach, the store of Mr. C. H. Hall, with its entire contents, books, papers and all, was destroyed by fire. It is thought it might have taken by means of matches, which were on a shelf where the mice could get at them. The loss is put down at from $2000 to $3000, and no insurance.—[Belfast Jour. 5th.

M. E. Conference at Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 4, 1850.

The Providence Conference of the M. E. Church met in the Chestnut street Church yesterday, at 9 o'clock. A. M. Rev. Bishop Morris, D. D., of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the presiding officer at this session. The Conference was opened by reading the Scriptures, singing, and prayer by the Rev. Bishop, who was followed in prayer by several of the aged members of the Conference.

I should judge there were about one hundred and fifty clergymen present, the most of whom appeared to be in good health. I have seldom looked in upon an ecclesiastical assembly which gave such indications of true mental vigor, combined with natural dignity. Unlike many kindred assortations, there is manifestly a great variety of intellectual, development among the members of this body. An observer would not suppose every one of them to be run in the same mould, or modelled after the same pattern. Many of these clergyman are fine scholars and would do honor to any profession, but some how the training of the schools has not seemed to rob them of their natural, out-gushing eloquence. Their remarks were characterized by sound sense, unencumbered by "windy words" and unenveloped by fog.

The most of the session was occupied in the appointment of the usual committee. Quite a number of visiting clergymen from the several New England States and New York, have been introduced to the Conference.

The death of the Rev. Enoch Mudge, of Lynn, one of the eldest ministers of the Methodist Church, was announced to the Conference, and a brief but eloquent eulogy pronounced by Rev. Abel Stevens, of your city. After which, a series of resolutions expressive of the feelings of the Conference, and of condolence with the family of the deceased, were adopted by a rising vote. I learn that the session will probably continue about a week.

A despatch from New York, announces the appointment of Rev. J. T. Peck, D. D., President of Dickinson College, as Secretary of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, in place of Rev. Charles Pitman, D. D., resigned on account of ill health. Yours, &c.,

THE MEDICAL STUDENT STORY.—A rumor has been for some time in circulation, that a medical student saw Dr Webster standing over the dead body of Dr Parkman, in the Medical College in Grove street. The story has found its way into many of our newspapers, connecting with it the name of Dr. Edward Beecher, of this city. We have made inquiry of him, and learned that he accidentally came into possession of the following fact, under an injunction of secrecy:

A gentleman residing in the vicinity of the Medical College, saw a light in Prof. Webster's room, on Friday night the 23d of Nov. It being unusual, he took his spy-glass and saw a man cutting up a human body; but supposing it to be an anatomical dissection, (it being previous to Dr. Parkman's disappearance,) he took no further notice of it. Dr. Beecher, not feeling at liberty to conceal anything that might be of importance in the case, interrogated the Attorney General upon a hypothetical case, and learning that the testimony would be inadmissible, pursued the matter no further.—Boston Traveller.

FRESHET.—The pier and docks have been covered with water during the day; our produce dealers being on their guard, but little damage was done.

At Utica, yesterday morning, there was a great freshet in the Mohawk, and is said to be higher than it was ever known before. A large amount of property has been carried off by the flood—consisting of lumber, fences, &c. Several horses and cattle have been drowned. The first stories of the houses on Water street, in that city, are completely submerged, and the Syracuse and Utica railroad track was under water.—[Albany Argus, 6th.

MELANCHOLY DISASTER.—We learn that on the 26th ult Mr. Dolliver, formerly of this town, and Mr. Quimby, of the firm of Quimby, Currier & Co. iron founders, of Searsport, left that place in a boat, for Surry, and that the boat was found the next day, sunk in Brooklin (Center Harbor.) It is supposed both were drowned, as there has been found no trace of them, and the boat was laden with castings.

Papers on the Currency of Maine—Specie Bank System—Domination of Massachusetts—Free Bank system. No. 5.

We presume there can be no more acceptable or instructive continuation of our articles on the free bank system, than is furnished in the following extract from the recent annual report of the Comptroller of the State of New York.

It is by the light of experience so eminently successful and searching as has been that of the great State named, that all may safely be guided. New Jersey, with some slight modifications, and by no means improvements, has just now enacted this same system into law in that State.

After the following evidence of the workings of the system in New York, we shall proceed with an analysis of the system itself. We are confident that a close study of, its provisions will persuade all the friends of a sound and at the same time steady and abundant currency for our State, that nothing is more worthy their adoption and confidence than the New York system.

[From the State Comptroller's Annual Report for the current year.]

THE BANKING SYSTEM.

Among the varied public interests to be affected by legislative action, there is none more complex in its nature, or more important in its bearing upon the general prosperity, than the currency created by our banking institutions.—The subject is intimately connected with the trade, property and business pursuits of the people; and every citizen is directly concerned in having the circulating medium established on a solid basis and regulated by correct principles of finance. Our past legislation shows, that while no public question has attracted a larger share of attention, public opinion in regard to it has been peculiarly conflicting and variable.—Enlightened statesmen and experienced financiers have advocated theories the most dissimilar; the experience of every country has been adduced in support of favorite systems; but as yet, none has been presented which commands universal assent. To create a circulating medium sufficient to sustain the legitimate business of the community, and at the same time to ensure its safety and convertibility amid all the fluctuations of trade, was the uniform motive of our changing State policy on the subject of banking. It was believed for a series of years, that this result had been attained by the successful working of the Safety Fund system. But the Safety Fund was exhausted, including its future revenues, by a few disastrous failures. Ten banks, in addition to the entire loss of their own capital amounting to $2,800,000, imposed a further loss upon the fund of more than 2½ millions. The degree of bankruptcy exhibited by these institutions, was astounding and almost inconceivable. Yet it has been shown that the Safety Fund would have proved sufficient to fulfill the original design of ensuring the redemption of the bank note circulation, if it had been devoted exclusively to that purpose. The destruction of the fund should be attributed to the fact, that all the liabilities of the banks, however illegitimate or extraordinary, were made chargeable upon it; and an unnatural credit was thereby given to unsound and speculative institutions, which enabled them to expand their affairs to an inordinate extent without reference to their intrinsic resources.

The Safety Fund system was virtually abandoned by the creation of the free banking system which has grown up under the act of 1838.

The distinguishing feature of this new system, is its requirement of productive and available securities to be pledged with a State officer as a guaranty for the redemption of the whole circulation. This principle has been tried and tested by nearly twelve years experience, and may now be regarded as firmly established in public estimation, as the basis of all future legislation on the subject of banking. The plan originally introduced by the general banking law of 1838, was defective in many of its details, and new legislation has been required from year to year to re-construct, strengthen and perfect it. The Legislature aimed, at the out-set, to require sufficient and unquestionable security for the entire circulation. It was then conceived impossible that any American State would repudiate its obligations, and no one suspected that any of the States would fail in the prompt payment of interest. The stock of all the States were admitted, therefore, as a basis of circulation. This error proved disastrous and was almost fatal to the system, during the earlier period of its operation.

In the first year, several States, whose bonds had been deposited with the Comptroller for the protection of the bill-holders, suspended the payment of interest; their stocks depreciated to a point almost nominal; and the result was seen in the failure of many of the banks, in the years 1839 and 1840.

The public sustained a heavy loss, and stockholders were involved in irretrievable ruin. It has been considered a matter of wonder that the shock thus given to the experiment of free banking, did not result in its entire overthrow and abandonment. Such must have been the effect, but for the elastic energy and capacity which our people display in retrieving transient reverses, and guarding against their recurrence. The legislature of 1840 preserved the system, by excluding the stocks of other States after that period, and requiring the banks to deposit stocks of this State. The basis has been improved by successive acts of legislation, until the security demanded by laws of the highest character in value and availability. It is true, that one half of the amount pledged may consist in bonds and mortgages; but these must be on productive property, for an amount not exceeded two-fifths the apprised value, nor for more than $5,000 each, and bearing seven per cent interest. While these securities are not as promptly convertible as stocks, it is impossible that any considerable loss should occur on mortgages of the description now exacted, and it is believed they will prove a sufficient reliance, so long as proper vigilence is exercised in respect to the value and title of the premises. The remaining half of the circulation must be secured by stocks of this State; for an equal proportion of this State, and the United States, and this must bear, or be made equal to at least six per cent interest. Government stocks of this character, command, and there is no reason to doubt they will, continue to command, a high premium in the money market. Indeed the rapid advance in the value of New York and United States stocks, renders it difficult, even now, for the banks to furnish the requisite deposit without an investment of funds which may be regarded as disadvantageous. This difficulty will increase from the gradual diminution in the supply of these stocks in market, and the steady increase in the demand for banking purposes. The financial policy, established by the constitution, compels an annual reduction of the State debt, and it will be virtually extinguished before the last of the Safety fund charters will expire. There is no reason to doubt that the debt of the Federal Government will disappear by gradual reductions, in the next fifteen or twenty years. A serious question is therefore presented, which cannot be long deferred, as to the species of security which shall form the basis of our circulating medium, in place of the stocks now required, and which of necessity must be withdrawn. On this point the Comptroller does not feel called upon, or authorized, to advance an opinion, although it has been intimated to him that the subject will be presented to the Legislature at this session. He conceives it to be his duty, however, to express a strong conviction that the public interest and safety require the exercise of a rigid and cautious discrimination in providing a substitute for the superior class of securities now deposited. If the door is to be opened, it should be done with extreme circumspection. No new form of investment should be admitted, which will not read ily and certainly command the par value, even in an adverse state of financial affairs. The law of 1849, which authorises the Safety Fund banks to reorganize as their charters expire, and avail themselves of the privileges created by the general banking law, by a gradual deposit of securities for three years, will greatly facilitate the transition from the one system to the other. Yet it is not to be disguised that the tendency of this change is to diminish materially the banking facilities enjoyed by the community.

To the extent that the chartered banks are required to transform their present capital into permanent securities, as a pledge for the redemption of their bills, they must deprive themselves of the means now employed in the regular operations of banking. But it is hoped that this vacuum may be supplied without serious derangement or embarrassment, by the gradual accumulation of surplus capital among the people, which will seek employment in the banking business. The charters of four of the safety fund banks expire with the present year, and it is understood that the stockholders of three of these institutions will continue business under the general banking law. The act of last winter, intended to give effect to the constitutional provision, subjecting shareholders to a personal liability in case of failure after the present year, adds a new element of strength and safety to our banking system. It is conceived that the limited liability thus imposed, so far from being detrimental, will prove beneficial to the interests of the stockholders themselves.—Its effect must be to induce a more vigilant supervision of the affairs of the banks, by those who are so deeply interested in their prudent management. Greater care will naturally be exercised in the choice of directors and officers, accompanied by a more rigid accountability of agents. The wisdom of this amendment will, it is confidently predicted, be fully confirmed by experience. It will prove efficacious, as well to the proprietors of the banks as to the public. If this principle had been in force for the last ten years, who can doubt that some of the most flagrant and disastrous failures of banks would have been averted?

Remainder to-morrow.

INTERESTING INCIDENT IN THE LIFE OF THE LATE MR. CALHOUN.—Hon. Mr. Holmes, of South Carolina, in announcing the decease of Mr. Calhoun, in the House of Representatives, stated the following personal incident:

"With the commencement of Mr. Polk's administration he retired once more from public life, but he retired voluntarily. Mr. Buchanan (for I might as well relate the fact) called upon me, took me to the embrasure of one of those windows, and said. 'I am to be Secretary of State: the President appreciates the high talents of Mr. Calhoun, and considers the country now encircled by danger upon the Oregon question. Go to Mr. Calhoun and tender him the mission to the Court of St. James—special or general, as he may determine—with a transfer of the Oregon question entirely to his charge.—Never can I forget how the muscles of his face became tense, how his great eye rolled, as he received the terms of the proposal. 'No, sir; no' he replied. 'If the embassies of all Europe were clustered into one, I would not take it at this time. My country is in danger; here ought to be the negotiation, and here will I stand.' Sir, he retired to his farm; but the President, in his inaugural, had indicated so strongly his assertion of the entirety of the Oregon treaty, had inspirited the people of the west almost to madness, and in like manner dispirited the merchants of the east, and of the north and south, that a presentiment of great danger stole over the hearts of the people, and a war seemed inevitable with the greatest naval power of the earth. Impelled by their apprehensions, the merchants sent a message to Mr. Calhoun, and begged him again to return to the council of the nation. His predecessor generously resigned. He came, and when he came though late, he beheld dismay on the countenances of all. There was a triumphant majority in both parts of the Capitol, of the democratic party, who, with a few exceptions, were for carrying out the measures of Mr. Polk. The whigs, finding that they were too few to stem the current, refused to breast themselves to the shock. But when Mr. Calhoun announced on the floor of the Senate, the day after his arrival his firm determination to resist and save from the madness of the hour this great country, they immediately rallied, and upon his friends in this House and in the Senate gathered round him and the country was safe.

There will be a meeting of the Bangor Mechanics' Association, at their Hall, on FRIDAY EVENING, April 12, at 7 o'clock.
Lecture—By J. B. PAUL, Esq.
Subject—Astronomy.
☞ Members with their families and friends, are all invited to attend. Per order,
JOHN M. LOUGEE, Sec'y.
Bangor, April 11, 1850.

CURE FOR WHOOPING COUGH.
At this season of the year, when Whooping Cough is prevalent, every family should be provided with a bottle of DOWNE'S ELIXER—which is the surest remedy known for that distressing complaint!
It loosens the Cough, promotes expectoration, soothes the irritated organs of the Lungs and throat, saves hours of hard coughing, and restores the patient to health in much less time than any other known remedy.
Downe's Elixer is also the most effectual known remedy for every species of Cough and Lung Complaint.—See advertisement in another column.
Sold by Druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the country. mch4 d&w6w

LAGRANGE'S CELEBRATED

Disinfecting Chloride,

....FOR....

PURIFYING THE AIR:

—FOR SALE BY—
JAMES DUNNING, BANGOR, ME.

THIS highly disinfecting preparation, discovered by a French Chemist, is one of the best preventives against Cholera and all other diseases arising from an impure state of the atmosphere. Its presence purifies the air and renders all offensive matters entirely inoderous, and it is therefore a very desirable article to throw about sink drains, privies, and all other places where the atmosphere is tainted with unwholesome gases and offensive effluvia.

There is not a family in the Country or City but what ought to have at least one box of this Chloride, to sweeten and purify the air after having cleaned up about their house and out buildings.

Farm and Garden for Sale.

THE subscriber, having made a change in his business, wishes to sell his farm in Hampden, being about two miles from the city. It is under a high state of cultivation,—cuts 16 to 20 tons of English hay, all adapted to tillage, and a portion has been used as a garden,—is well adapted to the cultivation of Garden Vegetables and Fruit Trees,—has a young Nursery, now growing on the same, is well fenced and has a small house and large barn on the same, both new.

Any person wishing to go extensively into the Garden and Nursery business, would do well to examine the premises.

Also,—a wood lot near by,—in all about thirty acres.

Caution to the Public.

Beware of Humbugs and Quacks!

THE HUMAN EYE is too delicate an organ to be trifled with; notwithstanding this, there are Quacks in our community, unprincipled enough, that of course know nothing of the Science of Optics, and will for mere paltry gain, buy, sell or trade in the interior article of SPECTACLES that cost half price! The lenses, in particular, being so untrue and imperfect as to ruin the sight entirely if persisted in for any length of time

The subscriber having served a regular apprenticeship, with Mr. D B WOODIFIELD, Optician, of Boston, and with 17 years practice in manufacturing and fitting lenses for all defects of the eye, within the reach of Optical assistance he trusts he will be enabled to give satisfaction in this department, to all who favor him with a call.

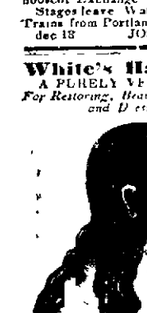
White's Hair Restorative:

A PURELY VEGETABLE COMPOUND

For Restoring, Beautifying, Cleansing, Softening, and Dressing THE HAIR



THIS elegant preparation is best taking the place of all other articles in use, for restoring and dressing the Hair It prevents the Hair from falling off, promotes its growth removes dandruff, and restores the natural Luxuriant growth to the Hair It cools the head and prevents the hair from turning Gray It gives a healthy vigorous appearance, No Lady's toilet can be complete without this indispensable article

RECOMMENDATION

[Certificate of Dr Lyman Portsmouth, N H]

PORTSMOUTH Sept 29 1849

Dear Sir—I deem it my duty to strongly recommend the inestimable value of White's Hair Restorative. Several years ago, after a severe fit of sickness my wife lost all her hair, the scalp appeared diseased, and the hair grew very thin and uneven. About two years ago, by another fit of sickness, she lost all her hair a second time, and for a long time there was apparently no action in the skin. After the various applications I was induced to recommend Restorative, and now after the use of two bottles her hair has grown out a thick as ever and of as good full color as ever. Furthermore, for a long time I have been afflicted with a rheumatic other pains in my head and I have found it the best external remedy I have ever tried, I can therefore cheerfully recommend it to all who are afflicted as above, as the best article I have ever found

Most respectfully your &c A PERRY, M D.

Another Life Saved.

Read the following letter from a Clergyman of Camden, Me, to the Editor of the GOSPEL BANNER—

DOWN'S ELIXIR, A CURE.

DR DREW—being anxious to do good to my fellow beings, as I have means and opportunity, I wish to state, through the Banner, that in my absence last winter and spring I received very great benefit from the use of N H DOWN'S ELIXIR.

I had been troubled some weeks with a severe cold which so affected the vital organs, that it was with great difficulty I attended to the duties of my office. My cold continued and I was completely prostrated by bleeding, which created a dry, hard cough My appetite failed my strength wasted, and my flesh disappeared. I had tried Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and nearly exhausted the Balsam, I procured a bottle and commenced taking it, and continued its use until cured and taken three bottles which I became satisfied that it contained opium, making a large amount of it very necessary and also convincing the very origins that should be relaxed I used other kinds of patent medicines, but with no good effect. Several weeks I continued gradually to sink until really discouraged, at this critical time, I was advised to try weak my skin dry and husky, and my feet and hands cold most of the time I had a dull, heavy pain between my shoulders, and a distressing pain in the region of my heart My friends were called to see Olivet, warm fur, bowels very irregular and costive, dark river, night sweats, dry, hard cough, difficult breathing and loose spitting My sister's at this time was in a very weak state, I was so weak that I could stir but little This was my situation when I commenced the use of N H DOWN'S ELIXIR—and to my great joy, and the great surprise of my friends, I found that in a few days the cold subsided, the bowels quickened the circulation and produced a healthy moisture upon the skin I used three bottles in two weeks, which entirely removed the sweats and weakness, from my stomach gave me a good appetite, and greatly improved my strength I continued its use six weeks using six bottles which time I was able to resume my ministerial labors I have since never could it be a large number, and have never have since felt the fail of doing good where the directions were followed

I have given it to my children in colds, and in a case of measles, and it has proved as it is recommended to be

I therefore cheerfully recommend N H DOWN'S VEGETABLE BALSAMIC ELIXIR to all who are afflicted with any of the diseases for which it is recommended Yours truly, J. LI TUTTLE

Camden, August 1849

Facts deduced from the foregoing letter:

1st Down's Elixir is laxative—curing costiveness while other medicine increases that difficulty

2d It is perspirant It equalizes the circulation—restores a healthy moisture to the skin, and vigor and tone to the system

3d It removes soreness and weakness from the stomach—gives a good appetite, and restores strength to the system

4th It cures colds—is an effectual remedy for the measles, and proves ALL IT IS RECOMMENDED TO BE"

It is sold by Druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the country, and at wholesale and retail at proprietor's prices by DAVID BUGBEE, G W LADD, CURTIS & PERKINS, A P GUILD, WM MANN, G McFARLAND Bangor; L. COMPOUND EXTRACT OF

SARSAPARILLA,

Wonder and Blessing of the Age

THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

This Extractis put up in Quart Bottles—it is six times cheaper pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold It cures without vomiting, purging, sickening, or debilitating the Patient

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other medicine is, while it eradicates disease it invigorates the body It is one of the very best

SPRING AND SUMMER MEDICINES

ever known It not only purifies the whole system and strengthens the person but it creates new, pure and rich blood, a power possessed by no other medicine And in this lies the grand secret of its wonderful success—It has performed within the last five years, more than 100,000 cures of severe cases of disease, at least 15,000 were considered incurable It has saved the lives of more than 5 000 children during the two past seasons

IN 1000 CASES OF GENERAL DEBILITY AND WANT OF NERVOUS ENERGY.

Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla invigorates the whole system and imparts vigor to those who have lost their energy by the effect of medicine or indiscretion committed in youth, or the excessive indulgence of the passions, and brought on a general physical prostration of the nervous system, lassitude, want of action, fainting sensations, premature decay and decline hastening toward that fatal disease, Consumption, can be entirely restored by this pleasant medicine. This Sarsaparilla is far superior to any

INVIGORATING CORDIAL,

As it renovates and invigorates the system, gives activity to the limbs, and strength to the muscular system, in a most extraordinary degree

CONSUMPTION CURED

Lungs and Strengthen Consumption can be cured Bronchitis, Consumption, Liver Complaint, Colds, Catarrah, Coughs, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Soreness in the Chest, Hectic Flush, Night Sweats, Difficult or profuse expectoration, Pain in the Side, &c, have been and can be cured.

SPITTING BLOOD.

New York, April 28, 1847.

Dr Townsend—I verily believe that your Sarsaparilla has been the means, through Providence, of saving my life I have for several years had a hard cough, and it seemed to grow worse and worse At last I raised a quantity of blood, had night sweats, and was greatly debilitated and reduced and did not expect to live I have only used your Sarsaparilla a short time, and I believe it will change been wrought in me. I can walk to walk all over the city. I relise no cough, my cough has left me. You can well imagine that I am thankful for these results

Your obedient servant,

WM RUSSELL, 65 Catherine st.

RHEUMATISM

Is a sovereign cure more than four thousand cases of Rheumatism that Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla has cured. To most severe and chronic cases are weekly reported, of extraordinary virtues.

James Cunningham, Esq., one of the assistants in the Lunatic Asylum, Blackwell's Island, 1st gentleman spoke to in the following letter

Blackwell's Island, Sept 14, 1847.

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have suffered terribly for nine years with the Rheumatism, considerable of the time I could not eat, sleep or walk I had the most distressing pains, and my limbs were terribly swollen I have used four bottles of your Sarsaparilla, and they have done me more than one thousand dollars worth of good. I am so much better—indeed I am entirely relieved. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted Yours, respectfully,

JAMES CUMMINGS!

FITS! FITS! FITS!

Dr Townsend—having tested his Sarsaparilla in cases of Fits, of course never recommended it, and was surprised to receive the following from an intelligent and respectable Farmer in Westchester county

Farsham, Westchester Co, N Y, April 13, 1847.

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have a little girl, seven years of age, who has been several years afflicted with Fits we tried almost every thing for her, but without success, at last, although we could find no recommend during six years of her sickness like theirs, we thought as they were in very delicate health, we would give it a one of your Sarsaparilla, and are very glad we did, for it not only restored her strength, but she has had no return of the Fits, to our great joy and happiness She is now becoming rugged and hearty, for which we feel grateful. Yours, respectfully,

JOHN BUTLER, Jr.

FEMALE MEDICINE

Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla is a sovereign and speedy cure for Incipient Consumption, Barrenness, Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb, Costiveness, Fits, Leucorrhœa or Whites, obstructed or difficult menstruation, Incontinence of Urine or involuntary discharge thereof, and for the general prostration of the system—no matter by what the result of inherent causes or causes, produced by irregularity, illness, or excess Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame Persons all weakness and lassitude, from taking it, at once become hale and full of energy under its influence. In nine debilitated constitutions the nervous nature of the female is the weakest, which is the great cause of Barrenness—It will and be expected of us, in cases of so delicate a nature, to exhibit its efficacies at our expense, but we have reported to us Thousands of cases where families have been without children are fusing a few bottles of this invaluable medicine, have been blessed with fine healthy offspring.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES

This extract Sarsaparilla is more especially prepared to relieve to female complaints No female who has reason to suppose she is approaching that critical period, DYING LIFE, should neglect to take this medicine, it is certain preventative for any of the some one and horrible disease to which females are subject at this time of life This Extract may be delayed for several years by using this medicine

Females who are nursing and approaching womanhood as it is calculated to assist nature by quickening the blood and invigorating the system Indeed this medicine is invaluable for all the delicate diseases to which women are subject.

It braces the whole system, renews permanently the natural energies—by removing the impurities of the body, not so far stimulating as to produce subsequent relaxation—which is the case of most medicines taken for female weakness and disease By adding a few pills of this medicine, many severe and painful surgical operations may be avoided

GREAT BLESSING TO MOTHERS AND CHILDREN

It is the safest and most efficacious medicine for purifying the system, and relieving the sufferings attendant upon childbirth ever discovered It strengthens both the mother and child, prevents pain and disease, increases and enriches the food—those who have used it think it is indispensable It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents diseases attendant upon childbirth—in Costiveness, Cramps, Swelling of the Feet, Despondency, Heartburn, Vomiting Pain in the Back and Loins, False Pains, Hemorrhage, and as regulating the secretions and equalizing the circulation it has no equal. The great beauty of this medicine is, it is always safe, and the most delicate use it must be carefully, very few cases require any other medicine—in some little Castor Oil or Magnesia may be used Exercise in the open air, and light food with this medicine, will always ensure a safe and speedy confinement

BEAUTY AND HEALTH

Cosmetics, Lotions, and a variety of preparations generally in use, when applied to the face, very soon spoil it of its beauty They close the pores of the skin, and check the circulation, which, when nature is not thwarted by these artificial means, is the primary cause of the skin's beauty and clearness, in consequence of the production to the "human face divine," as well as in the garden of richand delicately tinted and variegated flowers. A free, active and healthy circulation of the fluids or the vascular system of the pure, rich blood to the extremities is that which paints the countenance in the most exquisite beauty. It is that which imparts the indescribable shadow and fairness of loveliness that all admire, but cannot describe. This beauty is the offspr ng of nature—not of powder or soap. If there is not a free and healthy circulation, there is no beauty If it only is felt as driven snow, if the paint and use cosmetics, and the blood is thick, cold, and impure, she is not beautiful. If she be brown or yellow, and there is pure and active blood, it gives a rich bloom to the cheeks, and a brilliancy to their eyes, that is true nature.

This is the reason why the southern and especially the Spanish ladies, are so much admired. Ladies in the north who take but little exercise or are confined in close rooms, or have spoiled their complexion by the application of cosmetics, are mistaken if they imagine to regain elasticity of step buoyant spirits, sparkling eyes, and beaut ful complexions, they should use Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla Thousands who have tried it, are more than satisfied are delighted Ladies of every station crowd our office daily

NOTICE TO THE LADIES

Those that imitate Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla have invariably called their stuff a great remedy for females, &c, &c, and have copied our bills and circulars which relate to the complaints of women, and put forward the pretended merits of their stuff, in imitation of our words—

SCROFULA CURED

This Certificate has exclusively proved to be this Sarsaparilla has perfect control over the most obstinate diseases of the blood—Great Scrofula—and has unprecedented.

THREE CHILDREN.

Dr Townsend: Dear Sir—I have the pleasure to inform you that three of my children have been cured of the Scrofula by the use of your excellent medicine—They were afflicted very severely with bad sores, have taken only four bottles it took them away, for which I feel myself under a great obligation Yours respectfully

ISAAC W CRAIN, 10th Wooster st

OPINIONS OF PHYSICIANS

Dr Townsend is almost daily receiving orders from physicians from different parts of the Union

We, the undersigned, Physicians of the City of Albany, have in numerous cases prescribed Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla, and believe it to be one of the most valuable preparations of the Sarsaparilla in the market.

Blood Purifier.

THIS invaluable remedy for diseases of the Blood has given universal satisfaction, wherever it has been used, and its effects upon the system are so mild, pleasant and effectual, that all who use it are constantly speaking of its wonderful properties, and recommend it to the high at terms, to all who need the remedy. It is a certain cure for all of the Blood, for which purpose it is alone intended.

Certificates in any quantity, can be obtained, as the almost marvelous cures are known, and cases so well known that it is not deemed necessary to publish them

SCROFULA

This dreadful disease is disarmed of its terrors, since the introduction of Dr GAY'S BLOOD PURIFIER This compound which acts so direct to the seat of the disease, that it cures the worst cases, to the virtues of the Blood Purifier, which, by its wonderful chemical combination assimilates so perfectly with the Blood, that as soon as it is taken, it is absorbed into the circulation, and cleanses the blood throughout the whole system. Thus, by its kingly pure, it destroys the poison humors throughout the entire body, and renders so completely and forever the cause of the disease.

It may be as well to mention that Dr GAY'S BLOOD PURIFIER is entirely vegetable in its compositions, as harmless as the constitution as water; yet when a disease is to be attacked, or when a humor is to be expelled from the system, it will be found the most powerful and effectual remedy ever discovered

Mercurial Affections.

Diseases caused by the improper use of Mercury, are readily cured by the use of the BLOOD PURIFIER, as are also Mercurial Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, Weakness, Loss of Appetite &c, &c.

Pimples on the Face are entirely removed by using one or two Bottles,—and in fact, every disease which is caused by produced by impure blood.

CONSULPTION!

This terrible and much dreaded malady, the scourge and bane of our climate, in its first stages, yields readily to the curative and purifying powers of Dr. GAY'S BLOOD PURIFIER, and is more advanced in the second stage, it seems from its peculiar affinity with the Blood, to stay the progress of the disease, and to sustain and prolong the existence and alleviate the sufferings of the unhappy patient The

and activity, and the bodily and mental energies are rapidly restored, and in a few days, the unfortunate patient exhibits a proportion of increasing strength and activity, and the blood is increased in quantity of Blood in circulation It will be found to and those who are suffering from any kind of a humor. It is so very pleasant to the taste that they take it very readily and it has a wonderful effect in removing all impurities from the Blood of the little sufferers.

BRONCHITIS

and Diseases of the Throat and Lungs,—Dr GAY'S BLOOD PURIFIER has a wonderful effect upon these and all Pulmonary Complaints. These difficulties are caused by humors, which irritate the membranes of the throat and lungs, and the Blood is the source of the disease. The BLOOD PURIFIER, by acting directly upon the Blood, removes the cause of the disease and the humor giving nothing to sustain them, are completely and effectually cured

In like manner Dr. GAY'S BLOOD PURIFIER cures speedily and effectually, a

Chronic Complaints

and difficulties, arising from an impure or weak and impoverished Blood

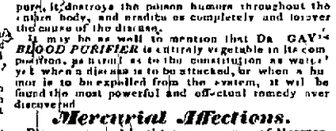
TO OWNERS OF HORSES AND CATTLE



DILLOW'S CELEBRATED HEAVE CURE AND UNIVERSAL CONDITION MEDICINE, is universally admitted to be a sure specific in the following diseases in HORSES and CATTLE In Horses—Heaves, Coughs, Colds, Glanders, Horse Distemper, Side-Bound, Worms, Bots, Scurvy and Scab, In Cattle—Bots, Staggers, Loss of Cud, Horn-Distemper, Black-Tongue, Cold Coughs, &c. On trial these powders will be found to be the best renovating medicine offered for all herbivorous animals, as they operate directly (in smaller doses) upon the secretive glands and humors of the blood, and whose horses and cattle are dull and stupid, and while the hair presents a rough and staring appearance, or while they are changing their coat—at such times a few doses will be found indispensably necessary to bring them into proper condition

☞Give the article a trial, and it will recommend itself.

DILLOW'S GREEN OINTMENT,

For Founder, Scratches, Wings of Spoil, Diseases of the Foot, Saddle and Harness Galls, Swell of Legs and Grease, and for all cases where a healing ointment is needed.

To the Farmer, Dairyman, Wool Grower and Groom this Ointment is an indispensable article—in proof of which numerous certificates of its efficacy could be given but it is not necessary, as it will stand entirely on its own merits.

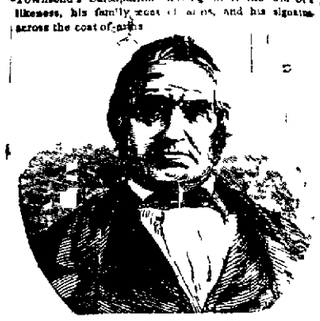
CAUTION EXTRA

A man by the name of CLAPP has engaged with a young man of the name of S P Townsend, and uses his name to put up a Sarsaparilla which they call Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla, denouncing GROENLINE Original etc This Townsend is no doctor, and never was but was formerly a worker in woods, canals and the like Yet he assumes the title of Dr, for the purpose of gaining credit for what he sells This is to caution the public not to be deceived and purchase none but the GENUINE OR ORIGINAL OLD Dr Jacob Townsend's Sarsaparilla having on it the Old Dr's likeness, his family coat of arms, and his signature across the coat of arms



Principal Office, 102 Nassau st New York City

OLD DR. JACOB TOWNSEND,

THE ORIGINAL DISCOVERER OF THE

Genuine Townsend Sarsaparilla.

Old Dr Townsend is now about 70 years of age and has long been known as the AUTHOR and DISCOVERER of the GENUINE ORIGINAL "TOWNSEND SARSAPARILLA" Being poor he was compelled to limit its manufacture by which means it has been kept out of market and the sales circumscribed to those only who had proved its worth, and know its value I had reached the ears of many, nevertheless, as those person who had been healed of sore diseases, and saved from death, proclaimed its excellence and wonderful

HEALING POWER.

Knowing, many years ago that he had, by his skill science and experience, devised an article which would be of incalculable advantage to mankind when the means would be furnished to bring it into universal notice, when its inestimable virtues would be known and appreciated. This time has come the means are supplied this

GREAT AND UNEQUALLED PREPARATION is manufactured on the largest scale and is called for throughout the length and breadth of the land especially as it is found incapable of degeneration or deterioration

Unlike young S P Townsend's it improves with age, and never changes but for the better because it is prepared on scientific principles by a scientific man The highest knowledge of chemistry and the latest discoveries in science are brought to bear in the manufacture of the Old Dr's Sarsaparilla The Sarsaparilla root, it is well known to medical men contains many medicinal properties, and some properties which are inert or useless and others which if retained in preparing it for use produce fermentation and acid which is injurious to the system Some of the properties of Sarsaparilla are so volatile, that they merely evaporate and are lost in the preparation if they are not preserved by a scientific process known only to those experienced in medicine and chemistry these volatile principles which fly off in vapor if not so exhaled, under heat, are the very essential medical properties of the root, which give to it all its value

Any person can prove the truth of this by taking a dark colored liquid which is in no from the living matter in the root than iron is any thing else they can then strain this liquid or wash it liquid separate from the sediment, and then call it SARSAPARILLA EXTRACT or SYRUP" But such is not the article in question

This is so prepared that not one inert properties of the Sarsaparilla root are first received every thing capable of becoming acid or of fermentation is extracted and rejected, then every particle of medical virtue is secured in a pure and concentrated form, and thus is rendered incapable of losing any of its valuable and healing properties Prepared in this way it is made the most powerful agent in the

Cure of innumerable diseases.

Hence the reason why we hear complaints on every side, in its favor by men women and children We find it doing wonders in the cure of

CONSUMPTION DYSPEPSIA, and LIVER COMPLAINT, and in ERYSIPELAS SCROFULA PILES CONSTIPENESS CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS PIMPLES, BLOTCHES and all affections arising from

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD

It possesses unrivalled efficacy in all complaints arising from Indigestion from debility of the Stomach from an equal circulation or deterioration of blood to the best palpitation of the heart cold feet and hands cold chills and hot flashes over the body It has not its equal in Colds and Coughs, and promotes easy expectoration and gentle perspiration relaxing stricture of the lungs, throat, and every other part

But in general debility it has excellence more than fully established and acknowledged than in all kinds and stages of

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

It works wonders in cases of Fluor Albus or Whites, Falling of the Womb Obstructed Suppressed or Painful Menses, from cold or anything else, Dropsy, Dyspepsia and the like and is as effectual in curing all the Diseases of Kidney Disease

By removing obstructions, and regulating the general system it gives ease and strength to the whole body and thus cures all forms of

Nervous diseases and debility,

and thus prevents or relieves a great variety of other maladies as Spinal irritation Hysterics Fits Tremor Sleeplessness Palpitation Pain Convulsions, &c

It cleanses the blood excites the liver to healthy action, tones the stomach, and gives good digestion, relieves the bowels of torpor and constipation, and by inflammation purifies the skin equalizes the circulation of the blood producing gentle warmth equally all over the body, and the insensible perspiration relaxes all stricture and tightness, removes all obstructions and invigorates the entire nervous system It is not this then

The medicine you pre-eminently need!

But can any of these things be said of S P Townsend's inferior article? This young man's liquid is not its but a inferior article? This young man's liquid is not its but HATION of his inferior preparation!!

Never forbid that we should deal in an article which would bear the most distant resemblance to S P Townsend's article and which should bring down upon the Old Dr such a mountain load of complaints and criminidiets from Agents who have sold and purchasers who have used S P Townsend's FERMENTING COMPOUND

We wish it understood because it is the absolute truth, that S P Townsend's article and Old Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla are known, wide apart, and infinitely dissimilar—that they it are unlike in every particular having not one single thing in common

As S P Townsend is no doctor, and never was, is no chemist, no pharmaceutist—knows no more of medicine or disease than any other common unscientific unprofessional man, what guarantee can the public have that they are receiving a genuine scientific medicine, text is sing all the virtues of the articles used in preparing it, and which are incapable of charges which might render them the AGENTS of Disease instead of health

But what else should be expected from men who know nothing comparatively of medicine or disease It requires a person of science experience and skill and serve up even a common decent meal How much more important is it that the persons who manufacture medicine designed for

should know well the medical properties of plants the best manner of securing and extracting their healing virtues a man extensive knowledge of the various diseases which affect the human system and how to adapt remedies to those diseases

It is to arrest frauds upon the unfortunate to poison them into wounded human life to take advantage of the suffering victim he renders health and life and vigor in the crushed and broken and hopeless victim to that OLD DR. JACOB TOWNSEND has SUCCEED and FOUND the opportunity and means of being within the reach and to the benefit of those who need it, that they may learn and know by his experience, its

Transcendent Power to Heal.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

AND

FOR THE COMPLETE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, spitting of Blood, and all other Lung Complaints tending to CONSUMPTION.

READ! READ!!

This medicine is just what it is declared to be above A remedy for the complete cure of all those affections of the Throat and Lungs which, if neglected, always end in CONSUMPTION It is not a worthless, catch penny article, made just to sell like many of the common nostrums of the day but it is a strictly scientific Preparation—the original recipe having been furnished by an eminent Physician, (the late Prof Rogers) and that said further improved by one of the present proprietors who is himself a regularly educated Physician graduate of the Medical College of Philadelphia and compose a part of the choicest article in the vegetable kingdom, most of them of long tried value and established reputation and some of them entirely new particularly the CANCHALAGUA a plant of most wonderful in medical virtues, lately introduced into this country from California The Recipe has been shown to thousands of Physicians who have unanimously approved of it, and will be shown to any Physician who desires to see it upon application either to the Proprietors or their Agents It has been used in multitudes of cases and is strongly recommended by Physicians, even Professors in our Medical Colleges, Ministers of the Gospel Judges, Lawyers Merchants, Mechanics, &c—a conclusive proof that it is no quackery or deception about it, but that it is a medicine of most uncommon virtue and efficacy

PAMPHLETS.

As no ordinary sized advertisement can begin to do justice to the merits of this article the Proprietors have embodied in a pamphlet form, the history of this Medicine—the description nature, &c of its principal ingredients—the effect they are intended to have upon the human system—and above all, the incalculable amount of good which it has done The pamphlet is circulated that pamphlet extensively, but should any one be overlooked, they are earnestly desired to call upon the Agents named below, and procure one gratis The hints in page 7th may be worth to yourself or family THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS and it will introduce you to a mass of testimony in its favor, which is perfectly irresistible.
